

The Ohio EPA in partnership with the Technical Assistance to Brownfields Program at Kansas State University invite YOU to attend:

Brownfields Grant Writing Strategies Workshop September 2 & 3, 2020, 9:00 am to 11:00 am EDT

MARK YOUR CALENDAR AND COME JOIN US!

This will be a Virtual Workshop offered via Zoom webinar.
The zoom link will be provided in an email following registration.*

The free brownfields virtual workshop will be offered as a two-part series and focus on information for those entities interested in applying or reapplying for U.S. EPA Assessment (Community-Wide, Site-Specific or Coalition), Multipurpose and Cleanup Grants. Part 1 will include a local grantee success story from the Village of Roseville and focus on tips for writing a successful narrative. Part 2 will include an interactive grant-writing exercise for all participants and optional one-on-one working sessions for those that intend to apply for an EPA grant. Sign-up for the working session is required and may be done during registration.

Who should attend? Local governments, land banks and non-profit organizations and their grant writers and others working to promote brownfields and economic development in Ohio.

A single registration will allow you to participate both days.

*EPA Brownfields Grants provide funds to empower states, communities, tribes, and nonprofit organizations to, inventory, assess, clean up, and reuse brownfield sites. Grant solicitations are issued annually in early to late fall with awards being announced the following spring. The next grant cycle is anticipated for release in late August/early September 2020. Ohio workshop participants are encouraged to attend a free U.S. EPA Brownfields Grant Overview Webinar hosted by KSU TAB in partnership with EPA Region 5 on August 25th.

Please register at www.ksutab.org/education/workshops.

This event is made possible with funding provided by U.S. EPA and separate, voluntary donations from hosts & sponsors. EPA does not endorse the products or services of others.
